

Biosolutions for Biopollutions

Mid-Atlantic Exotic Pest Plant Council

August 18-19, 2010

Hosted by: Fort Indiantown Gap

Anville, PA

AGENDA

August 18, 2010

7:00 pm Mid-Atlantic Exotic Pest Plant Council Annual Meeting (open to the membership)

8:30-10:00 Pre-Workshop Networking

August 19, 2010

8:00 am Registration opens

9:00 Welcome
Kristin Sewak, President, Mid-Atlantic Exotic Pest Plant Council

9:05 Overview of Classical Biological Control, Successes and Recent Developments
Fritzi Grevstad, Oregon State University

10:15 Break

10:30 Biocontrol of Mile-a-minute Weed
Judith Hough-Goldstein, University of Delaware

11:15 Use of Exotic Plant Pathogens for Biological Control of Introduced Invasive Weeds
Bill Bruckart, Foreign Disease-Weed Science, USDA-ARS, Fort Detrick, MD

12:00 pm LUNCH

1:00 Targeting Invasive Species Using Goats
Yvonne Post, farmer, educator, Chester County, PA and selected panelists

2:00-4:00 Field Session (must pre-register, choose one):

Option A Tree-of-heaven Biocontrol Project on Pennsylvania State Game Lands with Matt Kasson, PhD Candidate, Department of Plant Pathology, Pennsylvania State University

Option B Visit the Fort Indiantown Gap Grasslands/Regal Frittilary Butterfly Habitat with Dave McNaughton, Wildlife Biologist, Pennsylvania Department of Military and Veterans Affairs, Fort Indiantown Gap NGTC